Integrating Service and Character/Moral Goals for YES

Draft specific statements that describe service and character/moral development activities that students will engage in during their participation in this project.

Project Title _________________________________

Moral Awareness
Students will understand the ethical/moral implications of the project need and service provided by--

Moral Judgment
Students will be able to make ethical/moral judgments about their actions and those by others associated with the project by--

Service Goal
Student(s) will

Moral Commitment
Students will experience a sense of personal responsibility and ownership of the project and service by--

Moral Behavior
Students will comprehend and practice ethical and moral behavior as they interact with one another and those they serve by--

YES is a program of The School for Ethical Education, www.ethicsed.org