Volunteer Internship Opportunity

The School for Ethical Education (SEE) is a not-for-profit teaching agency in Milford, Conn with the mission to advance strategies for teachers in K-16 to support their students' ethics and character formation.

SEE has openings for high school student volunteer interns that depending on the student's skill set can include: data base development for SEE programs, phone and email marketing, on-line research and content development and support of website and social media outreach. Volunteer high school interns have gone on to paid internship positions for SEE and have received recognition in SEE publications. Those interested in this opportunity should visit SEE's website at www.ethicsed.org to learn more about SEE and affirm their willingness to support SEE's mission.

Volunteer Interns may offer to serve during any of the business hours of The School for Ethical Education. For more information and a Volunteer Application please visit-- <http://www.ethicsed.org/employment.html>
